Semmler Papers Will Modernize Mokena Plant

Growth of the area, reflected in the circulation of the Semmler Newspapers, necessitates expansion of its facilities.

To this end, it was announced by officials of the company the composing department at the Mokena plant is to be thoroughly modernized.

The machinery that has been in use is to be replaced with the latest equipment which also will call for new methods.

This will mean that for the time being, beginning with the Oct. 8 issues, the printing will be done elsewhere. The editorial and advertising offices—display and classified—will be in operation as usual in the front street plant at Mokena.

Until the old equipment is disposed of and the new installed the composing operations also will be carried on elsewhere.

Company officials feel certain that the changes in the paper that will result from the new methods will be to the advantage of the reader and the advertiser alike.

The paper will be of standard size but the page will not be quite as wide as the one on which this is printed and therefore more convenient in handling by the reader.

It is the aim of the Semmler Newspapers to provide the area with as fine publications as possible and to that end we are dedicating our expansion program.

Frankfort Water To Be Shut Off 3 Hours Friday

Frankfort water users are advised by village officials that the supply for homes and business houses will be shut off Friday night at 10 o'clock for two to three hours to enable crews to flush the mains.

The action is to be taken because of the presence of rust in the water.

The water will be turned on again by midnight or 1 a.m., it was said.

And speaking of water the village board reports a dozen or more delinquent users who are receiving their final notices. If these bills are not paid by Oct. 1, was decided, their water supply will be shut off. Some of the delinquents owe $50 and $60, it was reported.

Towns Receive Share of Will County Taxes

The Will county treasurer, Roy C. Doerfler, made distribution of $1,330,072 in real estate taxes the latter part of last week, representing money paid in since June 1.

The schools, of course, received the lion's share. The amounts paid to the townships in the area show this.

	Total	Schools
Frankfort	$49,440	$43,792
New Lenox	46,049	38,844
Manhattan	22,157	18,343
Green Garden	17,562	13,800
Peotone	24,349	18,561
Homewood	21,037	15,673
Will	13,522	11,081

The major portion of the tax money went to the 14 taxing bodies in Joliet township—$968,532 and of this amount $705,793 was paid over to the school treasurers, with the big share going to the grade and high school districts in Joliet. The grade schools there got $421,900 and the high school $283,175, leaving dribbles for the other school districts in the township.

CSHS Budget Wins Approval; Makes Tax Levy

The Sandburg high school board at a meeting Monday, Sept. 21, gave approval to the 1959-60 budget, subject to a couple of minor changes that make no difference in the overall figure.

The budget provides for expenditures of approximately $927,000 of which $663,000 is earmarked for educational purposes, $80,000 for the building fund, $41,000 for transportation and $143,000 for bonds and interest.

At the previous meeting, Sept. 14, Supt. W. O. Fisher submitted a study of the growth of the assessed valuation of the school district for the past seven years and an estimate of the 1959 assessment.

1959 is a quadrennial year when all realty is re-assessed. Supt. Fisher estimates the valuation will be up at least $8 million to reach a figure of about $56 million.

The board adopted a tax levy of $570,000 for the educational fund and $102,000 for the building fund. The present educational tax rate is $1.0776. If the 1959 valuation reached $56 million the educational tax rate would drop to $1.05. Board members believe, and if the assessed valuation is higher, the decrease in the rate could be greater, it was pointed out.

SURPRISING THING ABOUT THIS is that no one was killed. The top picture shows the remnants of a car and the bottom is the wreck of a trailer-truck following an accident last Friday night on U.S. 6 on the curve at Marley. Four persons were injured and three are under treatment at the Silver Cross hospital in Joliet. (Marvin Smith photos)

3 Hospitalized In Trailer-Car Crash at Marley

Three persons are hospitalized as a result of trailer-car crash on US 6 at the Marley curve last Friday night.

Driver of the trailer, Gerald Roach, 34, of Granite City, was severely cut about the body and head and was in surgery for six hours at Silver Cross hospital.

The driver of the car involved, Ray Narnum, 23, and a passenger, Ronald Seaman, 19, Chicago, were also hospitalized. Another passenger in the Barnum car, Sharon Luke 16, also of Chicago, was treated at the hospital but later released.

State Troopers Dennis Jaskovick and Gary Curtis of Dist. 5 (Joliet) who investigated the crash said that Roach was traveling toward Joliet and Barnum was heading toward Chicago. Barnum is said to have been traveling at high speed and went off the road. The car came back on the highway right in the path of the trailer truck.

Roach is said to have swerved the heavy vehicle in an endeavor to avoid collision with the coming car. The trailer and tractor both overturned and the driver hurled from the cab.

Police gave Barnum a ticket charging him with reckless driving.

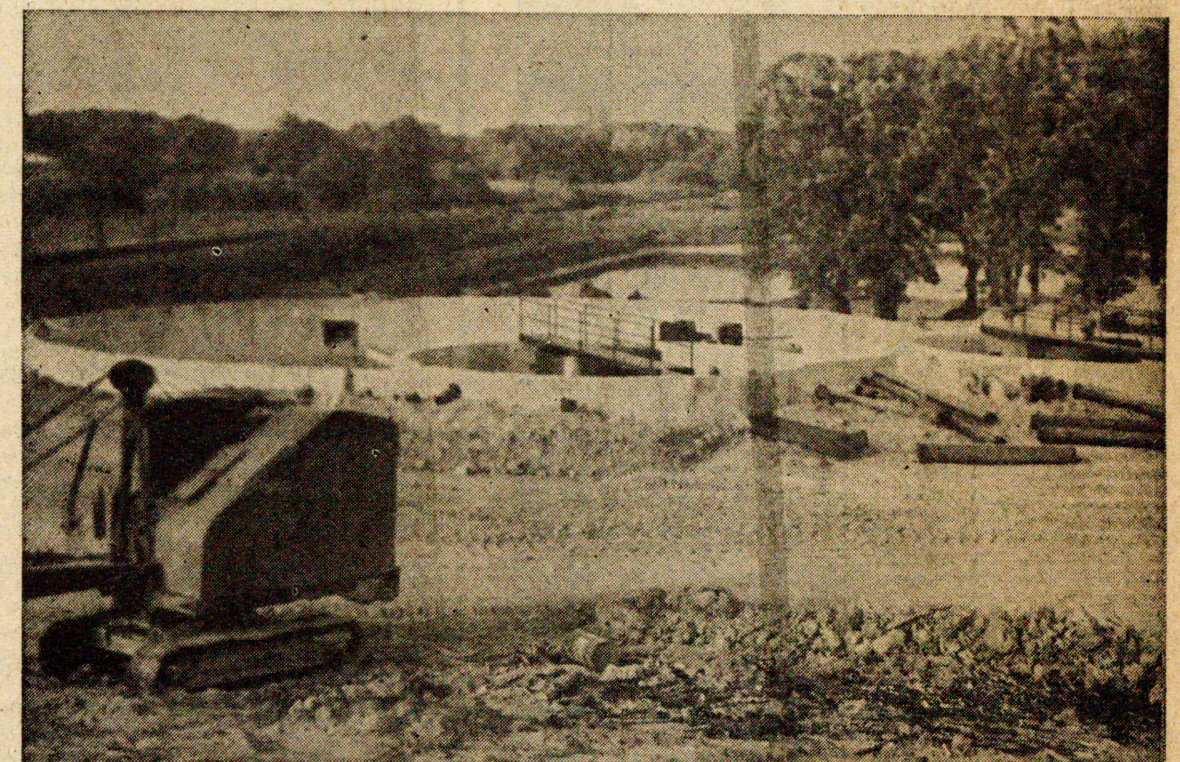

The accident occurred about 11 o'clock Friday night.

The University of Illinois College of Agriculture is offering a new curriculum in agricultural industries. This program is offered to keep pace with the many changes in agriculture and with the rapid growth in agri-related industries. Achievement programs mean many things to many people. For some it may mean the distribution of medals and awards, success for some, disappointment for others. To a few leaders the achievement meeting may be the end of their leadership experience, while to most leaders it is a milestone in helping the 4H Club members. 4H Clubs in the communities throughout southern Cook County will be holding achievement programs, or parent nights, in the near future. Community leaders and business people will also be invited. The achievement program is important to the young people. I am sure the presence of adults who have shown interest in the 4H program will add a lot to the thrilling experience a 4H member feels when his or her name is called to receive an award. Support your local 4H Club.

Deadly nitrogen dioxide gas, usually present in newly filled silos, may be even more dangerous than usual this year because of the exceptionally dry growing season. This gas is most likely to develop in silos recently filled with corn fertilized with nitrogen during a dry season. If your silo is partially filled and you wish to enter the silo, run the blower a few minutes before entering. When does it pay to dry corn? If a farmer sells his corn at harvest, investment in drying equipment will start to pay off when corn is over 23% moisture. That's the opinion of University of Illinois researchers. If moisture is lower than 23%, the best bet is to sell corn wet. Discount for moisture will be smaller than cost of drying, even with a large volume.

Truss designs for spans up to 40 feet are available from the University of Illinois. These trusses, which use splitting timber connectors or glue, are easy to build. For economy and adaptability, make your new farm buildings "clear span" structures.

Jessie Trask, 74, Former Homer Resident, Dies

Funeral services for Jessie Trask, 74, of Lockport, were held at Goodale Chapel Saturday with the Rev. George Moulthrop officiating. Burial was in the Lockport cemetery.

Mrs. Trask died suddenly in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, Wednesday evening, Sept. 16, after suffering a paralytic stroke at her home that afternoon.

Born May 28, 1885, daughter of the late John and Bernice Frazer, she was a member of a pioneer family, one of the first to settle in Homer Township.

In 1904 she was united in marriage to Fred Trask and the couple farmed for many years, moving to Lockport in 1925, where they have since lived.

Surviving are her husband, who has been an invalid for some time; three daughters, Helen of Joliet; Mrs. Clyde Reeves, (Mildred); and Elda, both of Lockport; one son, Ralph of Moline; also two brothers, James of Homer; and George C. of Lockport Township; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Formerly a member of Homer church, Mrs. Trask has been a faithful worker in the Lockport Congregational church since residing there. She was a charter member of the Wayside Workers Circle of King's Daughters; an active worker in the Will County League of Women's Clubs, a member of the D. A. R. and a well-beloved friend to countless people.

The number of bank checks drawn each year has increased 10 per cent a year for more than a decade and by 1970, it is predicted, 22 billion checks will be processed each year.

SWS Grid Teams Tougher This Year

Rich Rockets Could be Repeaters But Must Watch Braves, Eagles

By DEAN DALLAS, Sports Editor Semmler Press

The Southwest Suburban football league will be the toughest that it has ever been seems to be the consensus of opinion among the coaches, writers, and other such optimistic people. We are going to just agree with these gentlemen.

The SWS has already proved by last Saturday's play that a better brand of football will be shown in the wars for this fall season. In fact, the SSL may have to take a back seat to this conference in a year or so.

It looks like Rich at the top of the heap again for this season. Dick Anderson, Rich coach, welcomed five starters from last year's squad and they gave the fans of Park Forest a treat by mistreating bigger brother, Bloom.

However, Anderson is a bit concerned over the lack of depth.

Neither do the Rockets possess that break-away type of runner that marked their play last season.

As Anderson put it: "We are going to try for the winning season. Our boys have the tradition and the desire. However, I just say that we are tough."

Anderson puts a great deal of faith in his line. "Our line is every bit as fast this year as it was last year." The big Rich weapon of last season was a big, fast, and smothering type of line.

Phil Wagner, Tom Taradash, Chuck McMannis are returning from last season's championship line. All are good.

Bob Sadek, quarterback,

Yes, the Eagles cannot be counted out. Joe's boys gave West Chicago a lesson in line play and showed some real break-away running.

Jim Jeffries shot away with a 51-yarder, Dan Wassick -- a sophomore -- raced in with a 58 yard touchdown jaunt. Fullback Cernak sped in with a 30-yarder.

"We got some breaks and the West Chicago team was not the toughest in Chicago. But they were good enough. However, we learned that our kids were still green and did make mistakes."

"Thus our depth is in inexperienced youngsters and they are variable." Yes ... Sir!

You shall hear of a fighting squad from Orland Park in the football season. Sandburg is not going to be steamrolled by anyone.

Devine is counting plenty on that trio of backs that were mentioned a little earlier.

He would like best to get that line up and at 'em a little faster. Plenty is expected from the guards and tackles.

Two major problems that Devine faces is the teaching of the new T formation and then getting it to work. It is no small task to implement a new offense in one season. It worked well last week-end, but against Rich's line it will be different. The Rich line will test this offense.

"If we can move the ball against Rich, we could beat them," was Devine's parting comment. Joe is probably right, but no team has successfully done this in a couple of seasons. Don't expect Sandburg to do it Saturday.

Larry Callan's Redmen were quite a disappointment in their first showing when they battled Thornton Fractional South to a tie, 13-13.

Larry is teaching his club a new type of offense, some passing. This passing has not been a trademark of the Callan entries in the SWS.

It was this weapon that brought the tie for Bremen. John Mannaioni is proving to be adequate at the quarterback spot. John completed 7 of 14 passes for plenty of yardage.

Pete Loverich, big end, was the prime target for John's heaves.

The Bremen line didn't produce the kind of offensive blocking and the defensive savvy that will be needed over the season.

However, Larry Callan has plenty of material -- young and inexperienced, but eager.

This depth and previous record will probably propel Bremen back to the second spot in the SWS.

Rich Norbut, whom Callan is high on, missed the bulk of the game with a sore shoulder. He should be ready for the Lincoln-Way opener Friday.

Bremen has many fine running backs and will probably use them more as the season progresses.

It would seem--at this early point -- that the other five teams in the circuit will have to settle for something less serious contention for it.

Reavis has been mentioned by some of the football fans as a real comer this season. And they will bear watching, those Reavis Rams.

Saturday the Rams butted Marmon, 7-0. "It was a good game, but our boys didn't play the kind of ball we will need to conquer the SWS," said coach Bill O'Neill. "Remember we have at least 30 juniors on the squad. Six members of our starting team are juniors."

"We will reach our peak or at least our potential by mid-season," explained O'Neill.

O'Neill is counting heavily on Bob LeMonier to give him some sharp and hard running from a halfback slot. However, a big question mark in the Reavis camp is Tom Lunt. Lunt could develop into an exceptional passer.

Reavis problems were similar to those for most every other team in the SWS circuit. It seems that only Rich is not bothered by inexperience.

Jim Jameson should bolster the Reavis line. He is the only returning regular in the Reavis forward wall.

Lincoln-Way poured it on against a so-so Lemont team on Saturday, 25-0. The Knights wore down Lemont and then gave them a sound pasting in the second half. Diminutive Jerry Haehnlein, Knight fullback, scored a couple of touchdowns and had a fine average of four yards per carry in about 15 attempts.

Just how good the Knights are is to be demonstrated at Midlothian tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Even tho the previous games between Lincoln-Way and Bremen have been close affairs -- the Braves will not be overconfident for this one. They will be trying to establish themselves.

Jonas Lashmet brings quite a bit of experience with him and will definitely field the strongest eleven that Lincoln-Way has produced in the five years of its existence.

Last season the Knights won only one game in the SWS competition. This season Lashmet's boys should win at least three ball games. This would be a great season and give them an even record of 4 and 4.

The Knights showed some strength on the defense as they never let Lemont penetrate any deeper than the Lincoln-Way 25.

A big problem that Jonas faces is the lack of real depth. He has a couple of quarterbacks but he is not deep at any one position. In fact, he can hardly afford to lose a man at more than half of his positions.

However, Lincoln-Way should be fooling around up in the well let's say the fifth spot. Evergreen Park is going to be troublesome this season. They demonstrated quite a bit of strength by defeating Lockport, 14-13.

Lockport has not been considered highly in the SSL and thus the victory only indicates the rising superiority of the SWS over the SSL in football.

Kline, the Mustang coach, is counting on giving Oak Lawn a lesson or two next week.

Oak Lawn dropped the season's opener to the SSL favorite, Blue Island, 20-0.

New coach Fred Parks feels that "the boys should have done better. There were mistakes due to inexperience, but they should have been better -- I think that we can

Sandburg Band Will Play at NU-Sooner Tilt

The Carl Sandburg high school band, Orland Park, will be one of the 56 high school bands which will blanket the playing field of Northwestern university's D'Yche stadium during halftime of the Northwestern - Oklahoma football game Saturday, Sept. 26.

Nearly 5,000 high school musicians from nearby Chicago and suburban communities will salute the city of Chicago in a halftime display of color at the fifth annual high school band day arranged by the Northwestern university Wildcat Marching band.

The massed band will refer musically to the Pan-American games and visit by British royalty during the past summer, and to Chicago's baseball fame and role as an international seaport with a medley of appropriate music. Climaxing the salute will be the spelling out of "Chicago" and "USA" from goal line to goal line in letters 60 feet deep and 150 feet wide.

Those decorative accessories of any band, the baton twirlers, will be 400 strong on band day and to the tune of a new Latin-American novelty tune, will dance a special routine around the track.

The reams of charts, instructions and music are sent to each band director well in advance of game day to allow for ample rehearsal time at home. By the time the bands arrive on the Evanston campus about 8:30 a.m. the morning of the game the members of each band know, or are supposed to know, their band's position on the field and how to maneuver themselves into place for the formations.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By DEAN DALLAS, Semmler Press Sports Editor

The SW Suburban League has long been considered the doormat for the South Suburban League which contains such giants as Thornton, Bloom, Blue Island, etc.

However, last Saturday there were some ruddy faces; after the results were in.

Rich took Bloom in a surprisingly easy fashion, 20-0. Last year Bloom was in the title scrap to the bitter end. They are not being considered the patsies in the SSL for this coming season, either.

Evergreen Park pulled a shocker by knocking off Lockport, but it was even more impressive to see the lopsided score rolled up by the Evergreen underclassmen on the Porters.

Bremen had its troubles with penalties, and "greenness" on Saturday and had to settle for a 13-13 tie with Thornton Fractional South. However, the Redmen looked every inch a rugged array of eleven stout men. Fractional never had a chance to breathe. Callan is going all the way with juniors.

The only SWS loss to the SSL was a 20-0 loss to Blue Island. Blue Island is considered by many to be the class of the SSL and Oak Lawn is still quite an unknown quantity to the SWS. They are young with two returning regulars and a new coach. In fact, they have not been considered as even an outside threat in the SWS.

Thus it would appear that the SWS could clip the majority of the SSL foes this season.

Carl Sandburg didn't remind one of a tinge of "greenness" when they took West Chicago to the laundry, 40-6. Joe Devine should be wearing a smile, but don't count on that. Joe will want a little more. He will probably have to get a little more if his outfit takes the Rich Rockets in the season's opener at Park Forest this week-end.

This leads one -- to say -- yes we should -- that the SSL should no longer capture the limelight at the expense of the SWS. Notice, there are a few all-state selections every year from the SSL. The SW has consistently been slighted. They are considered inferior.

It would seem that there are no super-stars when the lesser team knocks off the giant. This is no Jack the Giant Killer skit! Mother, hand me the axe.

ONE COMMENT:

If Carl Sandburg beats Rich in the league opener at Park Forest the Eagles will bring home the pigskin crown for the first time to Orland Park. Devine's boys will be primed and this is definitely the game of the week in the SWS.

You know something -- Don't be surprised if one of these two teams take this big one in easy style. A couple of breaks at the game's beginning could bring about a decided edge. Reason! There is not a great deal of experience with Sandburg. Rich does not have the break-away runners that they used so effectively last season. YOU LAUGH TOO-- wouldn't it be strange that is, watching a Rocket chasing an Eagle over the horizon. This doesn't happen in real life. But another situation that is stranger is a Rocket after a Redskin.

Yes, I'm afraid that I must not pick with a totemism in mind. But can we superstitious civilized people judge by any other method?

That is SPORTSYOSPHILOISM! You guessed it--I don't know either.

THIS WEEK'S GAMES:

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS
Lincoln-Way 25, Lemont 0 Bremen 13, Thornton Fractional 13
Carl Sandburg 40, West Chicago 6

This Week's Predictions
By PEEPING PIGSKIN
Bremen will beat Lincoln-Way by two touchdowns. The score will probably be a low one. In fact, it would be a major surprise if the game developed with more than 30 points for both teams' totals.
Lincoln-Way has always shown great ability to withstand the Bremen vaunted power over the past four or five years. So, Larry Callan, Bremen coach, is looking for plenty of trouble at Midlothian.
Jonas Lashmet and his boys will not have quite enough for the hordes of Braves. The Redmen will at least secure the helmet.
Joe Devine is not overconfident after the 40 to 6 pasting that his boys administered to West Chicago.
Rich remains the team to beat in SWS. They took perennially powerful Bloom in an easy contest, 20-0. It was the big, rugged, fast Rich line that spelled defeat for the Chicago Heights SS team.
Sandburg will not be shut-out as they were last season. But look for a Rich victory by only a touchdown. Wouldn't look for two touchdown margin. Sandburg could upset, but Devine's boys don't have the experience.

Letters to the Editor

"Let George Do It"

Dear Sir:

This is September 1959. On looking thru old files of the Tinley Park Times, I came across a letter to the editor, in the issue dated Sept. 15, 1955, exactly four years ago, criticizing persons who signed a petition for a referendum of withdrawal from the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago. One of the signers of this petition was the present mayor of Tinley Park, Elmer Knudsen.

Again the honorable mayor is taking a stand which cannot do anything but further block progress in Tinley Park.

In 1955, he stated, according to the letter, that it would cost less for Tinley Park to have its own sewage treatment plant than by handing over the disposal of sewage to the Sanitary District.

The letter also states the biggest advantage of the village becoming a part of the Chicago Sanitary District, is that the State can no longer threaten suit against the village for pollution, because it will be the problem of the Sanitary District. No definite action has been taken by the State despite the murmurings of threats over the past four years.

Now the honorable mayor states it will be more costly to the citizens of Tinley Park if the Sanitary District takes over the job of equipping the village with a sanitary sewer system, without any basis of fact.

Perhaps it would be more advantageous for the village to handle its own affairs, if it is capable of doing so.

Tinley Park has very clearly proved that it cannot handle its own affairs when it comes to sewage disposal. Citizens of the town have defeated three referendums which would allow bonds to be sold to finance the project. Someone has

Country Club Hills Resident Receives Awards

Frank R. Zanzig, 4620 West 134th street, Country Club Hills, was presented with a good citizenship award last Thursday as a part of the special observance of "Good Citizenship Day" proclaimed by President Eisenhower.

Zanzig, manager of a Jewel supermarket in Chicago, won his award in a nationwide program sponsored by the National Association of Food Chains. He competed with other managers all over the country for this distinctive honor. The award, an engrto do it, and the village officials have been unsuccessful for too many years.

A definite stand must be taken somewhere. This is the time to discard old grudges and start thinking in terms of what is best for the village.

The mayor expresses loudly at rising costs and delay, but no explanation has been forthcoming as to why the village officials waited until May of 1959 to hold a referendum on the sewer project when it could have been held immediately after the plans were submitted in June of 1958. That was the period when costs were rising.

This referendum, like the two previous ones, was badly defeated by Tinley citizens, yet village officials, wearing rose-colored glasses, propose to again go thru the costly process of another referendum on a project greatly reduced over the previous plans, at a much higher cost.

Sound thinking Tinley Park citizens will loudly protest this useless spending, and this time it seems logical, we "Let George Do It."

A Citizen "for" Tinley Park ed, hand lettered certificate signed by John A. Logan, president, is industry recognition for the outstanding efforts of food store managers to the civic life of their communities.

Known for his warm and friendly personality among the people he works with and the customers he serves, Zanzig is very much interested in community affairs. He attends regular meetings of the PTA and the Home Owners association of Country Club Hills. During the past year he helped Mrs.

Zanzig in conducting a door-to-door canvass for the PTA and in her work as a committee chairman for the Woman's Club of Country Club Hills.

for these workers are being held.

The first of these meetings was held at Monee Sept. 14 with these six townships: Green Garden, Monee, Crete, Peotone, Will and Washington. On Sept. 15, Joliet, New Lenox, Frankfort, Channahon, Jackson, and Manhattan met at Manhattan Sportsman's hall.

On Sept. 25, Friday night, the six southwestern townships will meet at St. Rose school, Wilmington, and on Sept. 30 the six northwestern townships will meet at Schmidt's hall, Wheatland twp. Mrs. Krapf said the Francis field will be available for other groups to use. She also expressed appreciation of the Will County Fair Association and to the Joliet Pageant of Progress for their many courtesies toward the 4H's when their show was held at these two locations.

Of the $125,000 goal a total of $25,000 has already been received. The entire 18 acres is seeded, the roads are graded and rocked, there are picnic tables made for the area, the well is drilled, and a show ring is built.

Safe Cycling Habits Produce Better Drivers

Better bike riders make good drivers, was the theme of a lecture to the students of Orland Park Elementary school, last Friday by Frank R. Burrows, Jr., field service director of the Citizens Traffic Safety board.

Mr. Burrows used slight of hand to demonstrate in his talk the dangerous misconceptions of good bicycling and safe driving.

Featured were these points: 1. Bicyclists are operating under the same road safety laws as motorists. Bicycle riders must ride on the right side of the road, stop at stop signs, yield right of way where the law demands it and observe the many other traffic laws which could apply to bicycle riding.

2. It is just as important for bicyclists to observe the rules of road courtesy as it is for motorists.

Mr. Burrows also showed movies to make the point that no one is too young to learn about traffic safety.

Burrows was formerly fleet safety engineer in the Traffic and Motor Transportation Department of the National Safety Council. Prior to that, he was assistant safety director at Lordstown Ordnance Depot, Warren, Ohio.

Rain Squall Breaks Drought

The rain squall that struck the region Monday afternoon caused some damage in the eastern portions of Will county, it was reported, and west of Frankfort several hundred homes were without electricity for a couple of hours.

This was the first rain of any appreciable amount in almost a month. Almost an inch of rain fell by the close of the afternoon. Severe lightning and winds that attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour in gusts, accompanied the rain. The rain came down in torrents for a brief period and driven as it was by the high winds there were times when one had difficulty in seeing across the street.

This has been an exceptionally dry summer. There have been periods of heavy rainfall but the intervals between rain have been such that pastures and lawns have been damaged.

John Foster, 72, N. Lenox, Dies

John Foster, 72, a retired sheet metal worker who resided at 146 W. Wood St., New Lenox, died Monday, Sept. 21 at Hines hospital. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Baskerville chapel, on Lincoln highway, with the Rev. Alfred H. Hunter, pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church, officiating. Interment was in the Maplewood cemetery.

Frankfort Bond Ordinance is Up for Adoption

The regular meeting of the Frankfort village board which was convened Monday was adjourned to next Monday night at which time the bond ordinance linked with the sewer project will be adopted.

The ordinance authorizes the issue of $300,000 in revenue bonds. The bonds were sold last summer on a bid that is to hold until Nov. 4.

Village Engineer Robert Hamilton reported to the board Monday that plans for the sewer system are in such shape that bids on the project can be opened the last two weeks in October.

If a contract is awarded, then the bonds can be sold at the price agreed upon.

Early Treatment Protects Vision In Crossed Eyes

Crossed eyes is one eye condition which can be found very early in life. It is a condition in which both eyes do not look in the same direction at the same time. One or both eyes may be looking either inward, outward or upward, but in any of these cases, the eyes are still known as "crossed." Heredity and family characteristics, along with near or far sightedness, faulty muscles, a blow on the head, disease or excessive nervous incoordination may lead to crossed eyes. Any of these may prevent the two eyes from focusing on the same object at the same time.

Normally the two eyes work together so that no matter which way they turn a single object is seen by both. If one eye turns in another direction, as in crossed eyes, the person may see two of the same thing. Since the nervous system cannot tolerate this double image, the brain blots out what is seen by the crossed eye and vision fails to develop normally from lack of use. This usually happens between the ages of one and a half to two years when a child begins to be interested in the details of an object. Seeing with one eye becomes usual for him, for at this age he is too young to know he is using only half of his vision. While proper treatment at an early age may help recover the lost vision, the longer treatment is put off the more difficult it is to correct, and the greater the chance of considerable loss of vision in the crossed eye.

INFLATIONARY TRENDS

From Nation's Business: Despite the significant rise of profit totals from last year's low profit rate, some economists doubt that business will be able to absorb many more (wage) increases that exceed productivity.

"The principal influence of business upon the price level lies in productivity changes. Rapid productivity gains often permit substantial wage increases with little price increase -- or even a decrease. Federal tax policy, however, now discourages needed capital investment and in many lines has slowed down or has stopped productivity gains.

"Thus it appears that future inflation trends will depend a great deal more upon action

Barbara Sayers of New Lenox is Wed to Glenn Henry of Missouri

Miss Barbara Sayers, daughter of Mrs. Willard Sayers of New Lenox and the late Willard G. Sayers, was united in marriage with Glenn R. Henry, son of Mrs. Laura Henry, Poplar Bluff, Mo. at a ceremony Aug. 22 in the New Lenox Methodist church. The Rev. Alfred Hunter officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Musical numbers "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Rev. Ralph Miller of Rockford, accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Warning.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Harold Sayers, of Mokena, the bride chose a floor length gown of nylon organdy with alternate panels of lace and pleated nylon. The bodice was fashioned with a V neckline and cap sleeves adorned with seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl crown enhanced by three drop pearls in the front. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompons with trailing lily of the valley and ivy.

Miss Marilyn Sayers, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor wearing a gown of blue silk organza over taffeta. A scooped neckline and large puff sleeves styled the bodice. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue pompons and white carnations.

Dressed in gowns identical to that of the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Marion Geyer of New Lenox and Miss Roberta Ramsay, of Plainfield, cousin of the bride, who acted as junior bridesmaid.

Arnold Gaebler of Monroe, La., was the best man. Ushers were Ed Spiedel of Columbus, Ohio and Harry Geyer of New Lenox.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The new Mrs. Henry chose a cinnamon sheath accented with white accessories for her going-away ensemble.

Upon their return from their honeymoon trip to Lake Geneva, Wis., the couple will reside in Jonesboro, Ark.

The New Francis Road

This area appreciates the surfacing of Francis road. One may now travel from Tinley Park to the eastern fringe of Joliet on a black-topped highway that is practically free of truck and transient traffic such as one encounters on U.S. 30.

The road is good but those who travel it should bear in mind that it was not built for high speeds. The stretch between Gougar road, on the eastern edge of Joliet, and Cedar road, in New Lenox, is posted with a speed limit of 45 miles an hour.

The section between New Lenox and Mokena is not posted yet but it is likely that it too will carry a 45 mile an hour speed limit.

And it should because that is the kind of road it is. The curves, some of them rather sharp, are flat and cars traveling over 45 miles an hour have a tendency to bear out into the other fellow's lane.

There is one curve, the first one west of Mokena, that is almost a right angle and drivers taking it will do well to slow to around 20 miles an hour.

There has already been one fatal crash on the new road, on a curve about a mile and a half west of Mokena. And the reason was too much speed. A 14-year-old boy came around the curve at 75 miles an hour on his own admission. It was not surprising that the car went out of control, rolled and hurled its four occupants into the roadway. The surprising thing is that only one was killed and only one seriously injured.

It is to be hoped there will not be another incident of this kind. And there will not be if those who travel the road use care and judgment.

There is also another hazard on Francis road -- the grade crossing of the Wabash railroad. It is our hope that a deal can be worked out by Will county and the railroad for better protection than is now given.

The ICC does not recommend safety gates for a one-track crossing but it would seem that signal lights could be installed to give warning of approaching trains.

The fact that the Wabash runs few trains adds to the hazard. The absence of rail traffic lulls motorists into a false sense of security.

Right now the crossing is rough enough that regular users of the road slow as they approach it but cornfields on one side and trees on the other for long periods of the year serve to conceal trains bearing down on the crossing.

It would be well to protect it before someone is killed than after.

On Second Thought

By Glenn F. Logan

Most of us admire the hero type, the trail blazers, the men of courage who never count the odds and are strangers to the mushroom hunter. We look upon the scene with considerable pleasure and figured that as long as they lasted we could eat all the mushrooms we wanted.

Friends who had picked wild mushrooms assured us there was no difficulty in distinguishing between the edible and the inedible. Notice that "edible and inedible." That is the way mushroom hunters and the experts who write books about fungi phrase it. They seldom come right out and say--this kind is poisonous and this kind is OK. They refer to the poisonous types as unedible.

I suppose we would have gone out and picked mushrooms as we found them and ate them the same way but for the fact that our informants on the subject appeared a bit too vague in their descriptions.

"There's nothing to picking out the right ones," they assured us. "If they're white on the outside or are pink--what say Harry, oh yes, and white underneath Harry says, altho I don't think it makes any difference--I've had some that were pink underneath or at least pinkish white--maybe you might call it a light brown or maybe a kind of tannish color. And the outside doesn't have to be absolutely white either, you know. I've had some dandies that were white, only a pink or brown I think it was, showed thru the white if you know what I mean."

We didn't know what he meant and what's more while there were plenty of specimens around that were white outside and white underneath, and pink underneath, and tan underneath, and pink outside, and tan outside, there were also some that ran to violet, and purple and yellow and

He confided that while he and the members of the family were interested in mushrooms they did not eat them. Mushrooms really weren't his field but having noted the number and variety of fungi in the woods they had purchased a book on the subject. The book was written by a noted authority on fungi and contained many full page pictures, in color, showing the various species and their distinguishing characteristics -- or so the captions stated.

We borrowed the book and after reading it stood up for 60 seconds in silent tribute to the nerve and courage of the mushroom picker. On page after page we discovered that a mushroom of certain colorations and usually found in certain described areas were quite delicious and there on some with splashes of red or scarlet.

Our friends had nothing to offer on these species. They had never picked any, and so hadn't eaten any, they explained so we consulted some neighbors. There were several in the household and all were high school teachers. One was a science teacher and we put it up to him:

"How did one recognize inedible mushroom, or to put it another way, how did one recognize a mushroom that was edible."

one of the color plates would be a picture of it. Then reading on we would find that a mushroom of the same color pattern and found in the same surroundings as the edible one, was quite poisonous. There would be a picture of that one too and as far as we could see, it was the same picture as was used for the edible variety.

As we recall it there was one known as the Death Angel that was a dead ringer for a variety highly prized by gourmets.

After reading that book and skimming thru several others on the subject we came to the conclusion there was but one way to make certain whether mushrooms are edible or inedible.

Cook up a batch and eat them. If you are not ill with in a short time and are still alive the next morning you will have proven that this particular species of mushroom is edible.

We closed the book, returned it and have yet pick a mushroom. The only kind we eat come in boxes with the printed thereon. So if by grower's name and address chance one of them reverted to the wild and inedible state, our estate will at least know who to sue.

DENTAL HEALTH

TREATMENT OF IRREGULARLY POSITIONED TEETH

A generation ago, the advice given to parents of young children with teeth that did not come together properly was, "Let them alone. Nature will correct it."

Today it is realized that such natural correction is unusual. Children may not "out-grow" it. The condition should be watched carefully by the dentist so that any necessary corrections can be started at the proper time.

To meet the problem, the dental specialty of orthodontics has been developed.

These experts agree that when corrective treatment of abnormal tooth alignment is needed, it usually should be started by the ninth year.

There are different methods for bringing the teeth into proper alignment. In some cases, it is necessary to extract some teeth to make room. In all cases, some sort of fixed wire band is applied to the teeth to guide them into position by pressure.

Since these appliances must be adjusted to increase tension, appointments with the dentist will be frequent during the first few months.

How long will orthodontic treatment take? Dentists can only give estimates. Three years might be an average length, altho some cases will require only a few months. If the problem is only one of aligning teeth, 12 months would probably be enough. Parents often ask, "Will the braces cause my child's teeth to decay or become weakened?"

Dentists explain that careful brushing will remove the danger of decay. Some appliances can be removed for each brushing.

There is no possibility of weakening the teeth which are moved. After the treatment they as firm as ever.

While orthodontics is most frequently done on children and young people, it is now being extended to older groups.

Architect Tells Plans for Homer School Addition

By Elizabeth B. Anderson
Lockport 886W2

The Community School club installed officers for the current school year at their meeting, Thursday evening, as follows: president, Mrs. LaVerne Bond; vice president, Mrs. Walter E. Mooney; secretary, Mrs. Clyde Cramer; and treasurer, Mrs. Theodore Grimm. Committee chairmen who were appointed that evening are: program, Mrs. Frank Paul; ways and means, Mrs. Louis Greenwalt; publicity, Mrs. Eugene Anderson; and hospitality, Mrs. John Hasibar. Room mothers will be Mrs. Russell Lauffer, Mrs. Otto Morave, Mrs. Charles Cook, Mrs. Donald Culp, Mrs. Joseph Warren, Mrs. Pelletier, Mrs. Raymond Ludwig and Mrs. Willard G. Rowley.

The main topic of discussion was the proposed addition to the school which will be necessary quite soon. Architect Watson Healy of Joliet was present to give information on this project.

Miss Marcia Horn of Wheaton was a guest of the James Elvig's last Sunday.

The Donald Aspels have returned from a two weeks vacation in northern Wisconsin.

Betty Anderson spent last Saturday in New Salem where she attended a meeting of the state officers and sponsors of Future Teachers of which she is secretary.

Several people from here attended a shower, Sunday, Sept. 13 in the Verne Bell home on Lincoln highway, in honor of Marjorie Kasper, formerly of Homer twp. Mrs. William Kasper Jr. was the assisting hostess.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 19, Marjorie was united in marriage to Louis L. Lewey at the Methodist church in New Lenox. She is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kasper Sr. of Mokena. Mr. Lewey is a member of the Army; his people live in the south.

The DeLine family have recently moved to their new home on Cedar rd. near the Homer New Lenox line.

Mrs. Eugene and Bruce Anderson attended a pre nuptial shower at St. Dennis Hall, Lockport, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Patsy Ruetiger. Miss Ruetiger is a grand daughter of the Jacob McGuire.

Mrs. C. G. Rowley hurt her foot quite badly when she tripped on an ironing board in her home Wednesday. She was taken to the hospital for xray and it was found that she has a broken toe.

The Wayside Workers Circle of Kings Daughters will meet the afternoon of Oct. 1 at one o'clock at Homer church. Mrs. Reed Burch and Mrs. Ira Anderson will serve as hostesses. A bake sale will be held at that time. This is the 56th anniversary of the Circle's organization.

The junior choir had a successful rehearsal at Homer church Thursday afternoon, and will be singing soon for some of the church programs. They are being directed by Mrs. Ted Grimm, assisted by Mrs. Elvig.

The senior choir also resumed practice last week and gave a beautiful anthem Sunday morning; their rehearsal time is Wednesday evening.

Larry White, who was seriously hurt in a tractor accident some time ago, was able to return to his home Tuesday. He is in a cast, and is able to be up and around the house. Wrey White, also hospitalized with a heart ailment, expects to come home in a few days.

Frank Loucks who underwent surgery recently, is still in the hospital but is recovering nicely.

Among the Homer people who are enrolled at Joliet Jr. College are Ruth Benck, Darlene Blaha, Irving, and Edward Termunde.

Burt Gimber of Oak Lawn has a permit to build a five room frame house on the east side of Bell rd. south of 143rd street, at a cost of $11,000.

The N. W. Homer Fire Dept. Auxiliary are planning a smorgasbord supper at the Fire House on 143rd st. between Oak and State, Saturday Sept. 26, from five to eight p. m. Tickets may be purchased from any member or at the door.

Will Detach 20 Acres from Union Drainage District

(CNS) — An order detaching 20 acres at the northeast corner of Cicero avenue and Flossmoor road from Union Drainage District No. 2 has been signed by Judge John S. Peterson, sitting in Cook County Court.

The detachment petition was filed by the Beverly Home Improvement company, owner of the land. The Rich township site has been subdivided into quarter acre residential lots and will be served by a water and sewer utility operating in the area, the court was told.

Allows 30 Acres Of Feed Wheat

Roy M. Smith of the Will County ASC committee reminded farmers today of the feed wheat exemption provision of the 1960 wheat marketing quota regulations. Legislation enacted sometime ago permits farmers to grow up to 30 acres of wheat without penalty provided all of it is used for feed, seed or human consumption on the farm where it is produced. None of the wheat can be sold, bartered, or exchanged. Any livestock or poultry fed must be owned by the producer and it will not be permissible to remove any wheat to another farm for any purpose.

Any producer interested in growing up to 30 acres of wheat for 1960 should file an application prior to seeding time. Applications are available in the county ASC office at 1256 W. Jefferson st., Mr. Smith said. Producers participating in the program will be required to file future reports on the use of wheat so grown. An application may be cancelled by the producer at any time, but in this event marketing quota program provisions will then apply to any wheat produced on the farm.

Farm Advisor Gives Advice on Tree Planting

By JAMES FIZZELL
Asst. Cook Co. Farm Adviser

Fertilize newly planted trees carefully to avoid burning the roots.

Fertilizer will burn tree roots unless it is mixed with soil in the bottom of the hole. In addition to fertilizer, place in the bottom of the hole a layer of topsoil. Or a mixture of peat moss and subsoil or a mixture of manure and subsoil.

Here are some more suggestions for planting trees:

Selection: In selecting trees, remember that those with burlapped and balled roots have a greater chance of surviving than those with bare roots.

Depth of hole: Dig the hole several inches deeper than the length of the balled and burlapped roots. If the soil is a hard clay, make the hole extra deep to provide adequate drainage. If the tree roots are wrapped, make a hole one foot wider than the wrapping.

Setting the tree: Place the base of the tree one inch lower than surrounding ground level. Place it with its good side facing out. Put in a little soil at a time, tamping it carefully to eliminate air pockets. When the hole is two-thirds full of soil fill it with water. After the water soaks in, fill it again with water. Then put in the rest of the soil. Water the tree during the fall to insure good root growth.

Pruning: To compensate for loss of roots during transplanting, cut the side branches so that the tree is one-third of its original width. Never cut the top!

Staking: Staking prevents the movement of the tree that loosens the soil around the roots and creates air pockets. Staking also keeps the tree erect.

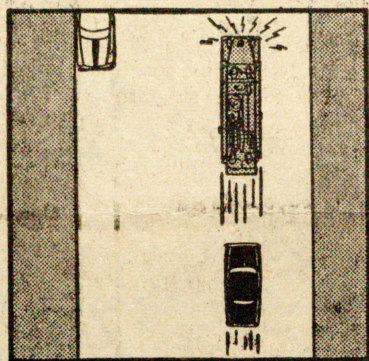

Wrapping: Wrap the tree trunk to prevent sunscald. Use a commercially prepared material available at most nurseries.

Mulching: To help conserve moisture, place a mulch of ground corncobs two or three inches deep around the base of the tree.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Some motorists insist upon following emergency vehicles. This seems to be particularly true in the case of fire engines. Apparently they are unaware, or do not care, of the law which prohibits following fire apparatus too closely.

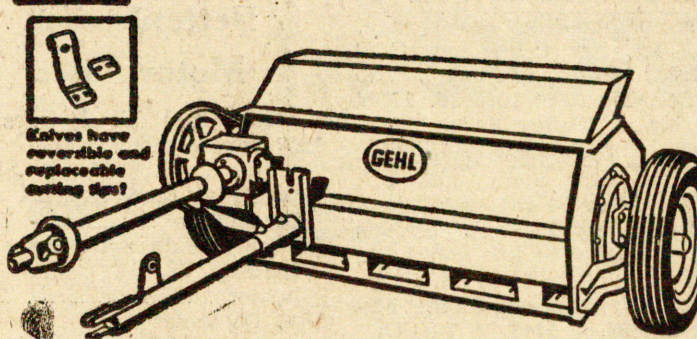

The law (Sec. 96, U.A.R.T.) specifically states that "the driver of any motor vehicle other than one on official business shall not follow any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm closer than 500 feet or drive into or park such vehicle within the block where fire apparatus has stopped in answer to a fire alarm."

When driving near the scene of a fire, motorists should be on the alert for fire hose. According to law, (Sec. 97, U.A.R.T.) no vehicle shall be driven over unprotected hose of a fire department when laid down on any street or private driveway to be used at any fire or alarm of fire, without the consent of the fire department official in charge.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

The first U.S. destroyer developed only 1,600 h.p. while destroyer leaders of today like the USS Willis A. Lee develop 60,000 h.p.

Advise County Boards to Set JP Salaries Now

Justices of the Peace in Illinois, who under new legislation enacted at the 1959 session of the General Assembly will be salaried rather than fee officers, will be elected at the township election in April 1961. Attorney General Grenville Beardsley today advised this to State's Attorney Wayne R. Bettner of Ogle county.

Consequently, Beardsley's opinion said, the county board should fix the compensation for the justices of the peace and levy a tax therefor at the September 1960 annual meeting.

The county board, Beardsley's opinion said, is required to divide the county into justice of the peace districts on or before January 1, 1961. In arranging for the change-es necessary due to enactment of the new legislation regarding justices of the peace, Beardsley's opinion said, there is no need for any immediate action by a county board of supervisors.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The market price for most U.S. government bonds of short term maturity is now about 5%. This has brought about some novel investment ideas.

Some investors have been selling their high grade common stocks with small growth potential and low yield to replace this investment by government bonds of up to one year to maturity. They retain in their investment account those stocks which are not as stable as to market price fluctuations, but with considerable growth potential.

In this manner, the investment account is balanced with the high grade portion yielding about 5% income and at the same time retaining a growth segment of the investment account. The nearby maturity of the governments will give an opportunity to re-invest in the high grades when a new look can be taken at the market for these stocks.

This yield on governments is going to have an effect on the market for such high grades. Their yield will be forced up to what is known as a "money rate" or somewhat higher than that of governments. Their income return being rather stable, they will be expected to yield a return of a competitive nature.

Some of the best utility stocks will be subject to this sort of comparison by individuals and institutional investors who invest for income primarily.

Commonwealth Edison has been using a plan which may well become general among high grade utilities. For some years, utilities have paid out in dividends, about 65% of their net earnings and retained the balance for re-investment in the expansion of the firm.

Commonwealth Edison pays a portion in cash (presently $2 per share per year) and an added amount in stock dividend to a value about equal to the retained portion of share earnings. The company has announced its stock dividend this year will be 2 1/3% or 2 and 1/3 shares of stock per 100 shares held.

Naturally, the utilities must come to the capital market regularly for new funds to finance their growing expansion and they must meet competition from others seeking new funds.

It will be surprising if more utilities do not adopt this dividend plan.

National Cash Register has just announced completion of a major phase in its "automation time table" as to business machines. They've been working on this development with Pitney-Bowes and General Electric. The devices are expected to have special appeal to banks.

These developments are (1) A sorter for sorting intermixed items of varying sizes at a rate of about 750 a minute.

(2) A printer designed for imprinting amounts on checks, deposits, and other items, in magnetic inks and using symbols and numbers approved by the American Bankers assn.

(3) A printer for imprinting account number or transaction number on checks, deposits, etc.

Carpentier Sets Up Calendar for 1960 Elections

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier today announced publication of the election calendar listing the dates and other pertinent information for the primary, general and judicial elections in 1960.

The calendar also shows the new electoral vote for the nation as 537, an increase of six because of the admission of two new states, Alaska and Hawaii, Mr. Carpentier pointed out. Each of the new states has three electoral votes.

The statewide primary election will be held April 12, and the general election will be on Nov. 8.

The judicial election, to name supreme court justices from the first, second, third, sixth and seventh districts, will be held June 6.

Copies of the booklet have been forwarded to Illinois congressmen, state senators and representatives, members of the Republican and Democratic state central committees, county clerks, the Chicago headquarters of the two parties, newspapers, radio and television stations, Secretary Carpentier said.

Requests County Zoning Board to Restudy Code

(CNS) A communication from the Regional Association of South Cook-Will County Municipalities was referred to a zoning committee Monday by the Cook County Board of Commissioners.

The communication, signed by M. G. Comstock, corresponding secretary, transmits the regional association's resolution favoring another study of the proposed new zoning code—this time to include a "variety of green belts." The communication states the most notable of the omissions of green belts is the planned deletion of the farm zoning classification.

The commissioners also referred to the zoning committee a Chicago Heights resolution protesting adoption of the proposed comprehensive amendment to the county zoning ordinance as it affects Bloom township.
